

Press Release

March 1, 2022

Kansas City, Missouri March 1, 2022 – JuneteenthKC, ReeceNichols Real Estate and Healthy Blue Missouri, in partnership with various community organizations, will be launching a series of Homeownership & Financial Empowerment workshops to bridge the housing equality divide within the Greater Kansas City area.

JuneteenthKC is excited to announce the support of ReeceNichols, whose contributions will create monthly homebuyer workshops available for families across the Greater Kansas City area interested in achieving homeownership and needing direct support services to meet their goals. Families in attendance will be connected to a diverse array of community support agencies and receive homeownership education to guide them as they begin their journey towards sustainable housing.

ReeceNichols President and CEO Mike Frazier stated, “Homeownership is a fundamentally important and rewarding experience. At ReeceNichols, we are committed to serving all members of the communities in which we operate, not only through assisting them with the home buying and selling process, but also through education on how to become a homeowner and how to grow and protect their home and its value.”

The kickoff event and first workshop will take place on March 12th at 12 pm at 1423 E Linwood Blvd, Kansas City, Missouri 64109. After that, workshops will be available to the community the last Saturday of each month at 12 pm through September 2022. Lunch will be provided to attendees during every session and families can now register online for the homebuyer classes at www.juneteenth-kc.com/family-community.

For more information, contact Makeda Peterson, JuneteenthKC Program Director at JuneteenthKC@gmail.com.

###

Contact Data
Makeda Peterson
JuneteenthKC Program Director
816-673-0004